[DA] Domain Applications

Abstract

The Domain Applications knowledge area focuses on the linkages between the foundational GIS&T competencies found in other components of the Body of Knowledge and their implementation across a wide range of application areas, highlighting their scope and depth and providing evaluation of their impacts. This Knowledge Area was not part of the first GIS&T Body of Knowledge, published in 2006.